St. James's, February 6.

THE following Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, Biſhops, and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, was this Day preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbiſhop, Biſhops, and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation aſſembled, beg Leave to preſent our moſt humble and ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty upon the Increaſe of your Royal and Illuſtrious Family; every Addition to which, we, with the reſt of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, conſider as a farther Security of thoſe invaluable Bleſſings, which this Nation has enjoyed under the Houſe of Brunſwick, and as a Pledge of its future Happineſs.

It is with the greateſt Satisfaction, as well as the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude, that your faithful Clergy take this Opportunity of their being convened, to repeat their Thankfulneſs to your Majeſty for the frequent Aſſurances which you have given them of your firm Reſolution to maintain them in the full Enjoyment of their Civil and Religious Rights, and to make their publick Acknowledgment of the Experience they have had of your ſtrict Adherence to thoſe gracious Declarations.

Happy, Sir, would it be for this Nation, if your Royal Authority, if your Illuſtrious Example, if the Influence of your private and publick Virtues, had a more powerful Effect upon the Minds and Morals of your People. But we are obliged to confeſs what we with Sorrow obſerve, that a Diſregard to the Sacred Precepts of Chriſtianity, and a Neglect of its moſt eſſential Duties, become every Day more general through all Ranks of Men; and that a Spirit of Licentiouſneſs prevails both in the Writings and Practice of the Times, equally dangerous to the beſt conſtituted civil Government, and to the pureſt Mode of religious Worſhip.

Under theſe Circumſtances we, who are moſt immediately engaged in the Service of Religion, feel ourſelves in a more peculiar Manner called upon to check, as far as we are able, the growing Evils we lament; to impreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, upon the Minds of the People, Fidelity to, and Zeal for, the eſtabliſhed Religion of our Country, with Moderation and Chriſtian Charity towards thoſe who have the Misfortune to differ from us; to admoniſh them to be attentive to the ſacred Principles of Religion, and to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to make their Lives conformable to its holy Doctrines.

Thus alone can we acquit ourſelves of our Duty towards God, and contribute to the preſent Welfare and future Happineſs of our Fellow-Creatures.

In theſe our pious Endeavours, we know we can depend upon the Countenance and Protection of your Majeſty: May you, Sir, with the Aſſiſtance of the Almighty, long continue the firm Support of the Proteſtant Faith: May the ſame Providence, under whoſe Divine Protection you carried on and concluded the moſt ſucceſsful War that is recorded in the Annals of our Hiſtory, enable you to preſerve to your People, for a Courſe of many Years, the Bleſſings of Peace: And may you continue to derive conſtant Satisfaction to yourſelf, from a Senſe of that Happineſs which your Subjects receive from the Wiſdom and Mildneſs of your Government.

They were received very graciouſly, and all had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

I Return you My Thanks for this very dutiful and loyal Addreſs, and for the Share you take in My Domeſtick Happineſs, ſo warmly expreſſed in your affectionate Congratulations on the Increaſe of My Family. It is with the greateſt Pleaſure I obſerve your Reliance on My invariable Reſolution to preſerve and maintain the Civil and Religious Rights of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſhed. You may depend upon My conſtant Approbation and ſtrongeſt Support of your Endeavours to ſuppreſs that Spirit of Licentiouſneſs and Immorality,

[Price Three-Pence.]

Immorality, which unfortunately prevails ſo much at this Time. The very laudable Zeal with which you exert yourſelves in impreſſing upon the Minds of the People a proper Senſe of our Holy Religion, and juſt Obſervance of the Laws of this happy Conſtitution, will ever meet with My Countenance and Protection.

Copenhagen, January 17. On Saturday laſt the King of Denmark arrived here in perfect Health: The Queen went as far as Roſchild to meet his Majeſty. Between Six and Seven o'Clock in the Evening their Majeſties made a Publick Entry into this Capital, under a triple Diſcharge of Cannon on the Ramparts. The whole Garriſon, as well as the Burghers, were under Arms; and Permiſſion having been given a few Days before to illuminate the Houſes, the Inhabitants vied with each other in doing this as well as the ſhort Notice would admit of, and in demonſtrating their Joy on this happy Occaſion.

The Court of Directors having, in Conſequence of the Recommendation of the laſt General Court of the 25th of January laſt, obtained from the Lords of the Treaſury the Explanation therein deſired, have drawn up the following Propoſitions, which concur, as they apprehend, with their Lordſhips Explanation, and they ſubmit the ſame to the Conſideration of the General Court.

All Perſons who may be obliged to ſend their Letters after that Hour to the Bell-Men, ſhould be cautious whom they truſt therewith, to prevent their being either detained till the next Day, or deſtroyed for the Pence.
